

United Nation International Women’s Day

2019

“On this International Women’s Day, let’s make sure women and girls can shape the policies, services and infrastructure that impact all our lives. And let’s support women and girls who are breaking down barriers to create a better world for everyone.” UN Secretary General, António Guterres’

Women are calm, composed and compassionate. They are also good managers as well as mothers. With such exclusive combinations they need the space and platform to stand on their own and contribute to the progress of the Nation and the World.

Today’s World is of competitions and complex professional demands. Both men and women need to prepare themselves to be the lime light. Women need respect and equal platform.

We pledge on this Women’s Day that let the women have the right opportunities to march ahead and stand as equal to their men counterparts. On this day we look at the UN's Resolution of focusing on "Women in the Changing World of Work: Planet 50-50 by 2030". The UN Secretary General, António Guterres advocates that women be given equal chance in all fields as well as there is a need to change the mindset and let this huge human resource be equally productive with men.

Best Regards.
